The NAVY BLUE

★ The Navy at Millsaps has brought a vindication of the method of the liberal arts college. The noble traditions so carefully treasured through the successive classes have not been destroyed under these different circumstances; the worth of our system has been adhered to by the program.

The seriousness of the time and the acute need of better equipped men and women have given Millsaps a greater opportunity for service -- a service that has always been the ultimate aim of this college.

Today, as a realization of this desire, the Navy is on our campus. Their challenge and spirit have become one with ours -- and we strive together towards a common goal.

and MILLSAPS, TOO . . .

Dedicated to ★ Millsaps College has been greatly influenced by the Naval Training Unit, and the Naval Unit has been influenced by the college. It is with an abiding sense of pride and appropriateness that this volume is dedicated to the best representative manifestations of both spirits -- to the Unit itself, and to Professor Sanders.

Professor Sanders' abounding intelligence, ability to meet changing conditions, and ableness to serve in every capacity have made him identical with what is the best of this generation. His cooperative attitude, his sincere interest, and his untiring loyalty to a higher idealism have typified at Millsaps a standard of excellence.

So this Bobashela is gratefully dedicated to two expressions of Millsaps, neither of which is separated from the other in concept. We are proud of the splendid relationship between the Naval Training Unit and the college.

Millsaps PRESIDENT

DR. M. L. SMITH

Under the capable leadership of Dr. Marion L. Smith Millsaps has enjoyed a new era. His interest in the college is evident in the progress of many of his undertakings. Through his interest the Christian Center Memorial materialized. He personifies Millsaps to both the alumni and student.

DEANS

DEAN OF MEN
WILLIAM E. RIECKEN, Ph.D.

DEAN OF WOMEN
MARY H. B. STONE, M.A.

DEAN OF FRESHMEN
A. P. HAMILTON, Ph.D.

Three deans, and each of them with much responsibility, is the standing rule at Millsaps. They give us counsel when we are in need of it, and they are always the first to congratulate us on our achievements. They are the all seeing eyes of Millsaps, and not the slightest activity is without their interest. The helping hand of Dr. Riecken, the gentle philosophy of Mrs. Stone, and the unequalled merit of Dr. Hamilton have won for them a lasting remembrance. Few colleges boast such guidance.

The SENIORS

Seniors, capped and gowned, are lining up for the annual Founder's Day procession. This is the golden age of a student's college career; he is completing his higher education and he is realizing his vast responsibilities to his area -- the world. Millsaps College gives a solid foundation for whatever may happen in the future; it has prepared students with the trust that they will be true to their heritage and leave a better heritgae for those generations to come.

The SENIOR

NOEL C. WOMACK - - - - - President

LOUISE MILLER - - - - - Secretary-Treasurer

Officers

Noel Womack, Senior Class President, recently left us for medical school. How he left Flora Mae Arant is still the sixty dollar question. Noel suffered a great deal from the Finger of Scorn, but he has at last come out on top. His father is a doctor, and he has inherited medical talent and ambition that will follow him to a great career. He has been the head man in Kappa Sigma, and that is an honor of distinction. Since he was a shaved-head freshman he has been a part of greater Millsaps.

Jake Stoker is our vice president, but his picture is just not to be found high or low. A Marine, he came and left us with the situation well under his control. His competence, friendliness, and ability will always be a part of Millsaps College.

Here's Louise Miller again -- this time as Senior Secretary-Treasurer. Refer to the Miss Millsaps picture for a close up and you will see one good reason why she was elected. Since her coming to Millsaps she has been one of the most sought-after co-eds, and the Grill will always have a booth reserved for her. She is a part of the campus life that is permanent.

The JUNIOR

MIKE McLAURIN - - - - - President
PARKER WALKER - - - - - Vice President
LADY BETTYE TIMBERLAKE - - - Secretary-Treasurer

We've known Mike McLaurin for three years now -- over a thousand days in all -- and everyone of them has been an opportunity for him to prove himself to be likeable, amusing, and hard-working. He is one of our "ante-bellum" sailors, a figure head in Pi Kappa Alpha, and an all-round good fellow. Dale Burnham knows him pretty well; ask her. He is making a record that will elect him to any office any time. Mike may be taken as the typical Millsaps student who came as a civilian and stayed as a sailor.

Bubber Walker is another of these Millsaps institutions. He is a B M O C, a Kappa Sig, and several other notable things. Look at the Purple and White and you will see his name all through it, even in the jokes. He has been an easy-going, good-natured, hail-fellow-well-met type.

Lady Bettye Timberlake, Chi Omega, beloved of Sonny Williams, true scholar, only business manager capable of adding all the figures necessary for this publication, and Chi Delta's brightest jewel, is without equal on the campus. Her older sister set her a wonderful record to live up to, and she has even exceeded expectations. She never looks worried, but the long sleepless nights spent in wondering about this book have been enough to make her grey headed. There never was but one, and then she has enriched Millsaps.

C L A S S

Under the accelerated semester program, Juniors never know whether they are old juniors or young seniors. Some graduate before they know their classification! This class roster is one of names that are significant on the campus. Jean Calloway will surely graduate summa cum laude; he is president of O D K, Senior Class president (but classified as a junior), and has also directed the fraternities as head of Men's Panhellenic. Then there is Marjorie Mounger who christens ships (she hits them, too!). She is a favorite sight on the campus. Remember Jamie Forrest's contribution to the splendid Sigma Lambda Varsity Show? Louise Pullen is a rare type, too. Then there is John Poole who resigned all of his offices in the honoraries in order to study. Randolph Peets actually pinned Charlotte Gullledge and love blossomed anew on the campus. Clyde Leigh Perry married at St. Andrew's Church to culminate a happy courtship. Lady Bettye Timberlake has a distant look in her eye since Sonny's departure. Frances Jean Cruise is a big favorite out at the Air Base; her picture made front page. With a class like this coming on what have the seniors got to brag about (except exemptions)?

GEORGE CAHALL - - - - - President
PERRY TERRELL - - - - - Vice President

George Cahall rooms in the corner room over in Whitworth with Francis Lundy; both are exceptionally good in politics and love. He put his Pi K A pin on June Dobbs and the whole campus has come to look on them as the ideal couple. He is the typical college fellow, and if the most representative boy on the campus were picked it would probably be Cahall. He never gets in a hurry, he never bothers, he always is where he is supposed to be, and yet he has a touch of imp in him that makes him have one of the most attractive personalities that the Navy has brought to Millsaps.

Perry Terrell, musician, Kappa Sig, and man about town, can do anything from play in Handel's "Messiah" to participate in a Sig bowery party. He is also Vice President. Cigarettes and music are his hobbies, and he is expert in the selection of either.

Dale Burnham! That is one name that means something on this man's campus. Seldom do we see beauty, brains, wit, poise, personality, and genuine ability wrapped up in one package, but Dale is it. She has been doing things in a big way ever since her freshman year, and that is not so far back that we can't remember it. She now heads the Chi Omegas, an enviable position, and she likewise can do just about what she sets her mind to do. She is one of those characters that will always stand vividly out in our minds against the background of Millsaps memories.

C L A S S

The Cahall-Terrell-Burnham regime is a flying start for any class. Frances Alexander is still one of the most beautiful girls that we have ever seen, and sometimes we think she is getting prettier all of the time. Nellah Bailey married, and the wedding at the Governor's mansion was super. ' White magnolias were used for decoration, but the immortal "Dixie" was not played. Virginia Carmichael has centered her affection on Billy Shackelford, and thus a freshman romance endures a second year. Confidentially, this one may last much longer. Lane Van Hook is still the odd character with amazing ideas that delight everyone. Mary Ann Phillips left Millsaps for some place, we never did know exactly where. She took a K A pin in transit. Theo Stovall brings out the wolf in people, and Foozie Waring must bring out something or other sometime. Lundy soared to the head of the student body. Dillingham worried about Catherine Sadler. Sylvia Wilkins married, and Roberta Crawford became engaged. Rebecca Bufkin made eyes at a sailor, and Sally Ann O'Brien made eyes at everyone. Toni Burton and D. T. are a part of the wonderful romances, and Dale Burnham has no less than six dates a day.

The FRESHMAN

WALTER JOHNSON President
JACK GILBERT Vice President
MARGUERITE STANLEY Secretary Treasurer

Walter Johnson from Pelahatchie is a good example of what a freshman is expected to be. He has done everything from work in the office to check in laundry for U. Z. He has been to Mexico on Dr. Dooley's Memorable trip; he has seen lots that he never dreamed of. The world of college has been set in his hand, and he barely knows what to do with it. He is a born politician, and was speedily elected president. If you are in need of a laugh, by all means see Walter. He has taken only the barest minimum seriously, and the rest is one great panorama of hilarity.

Jack Gilbert, a Pi K A like Walter Johnson, is a seasoned sailor. He has seen action, and this campus saw lots of it after he got here. He buddied around with Billy Wright and John McKee, and wherever one was, the other three were sure to be near, just like the Parcae.

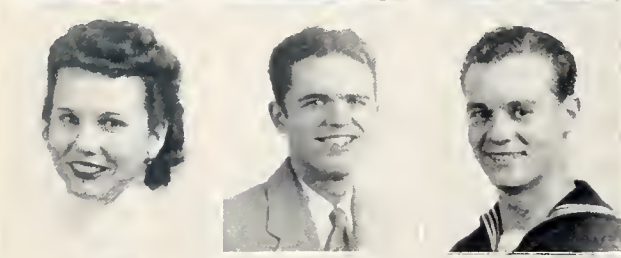

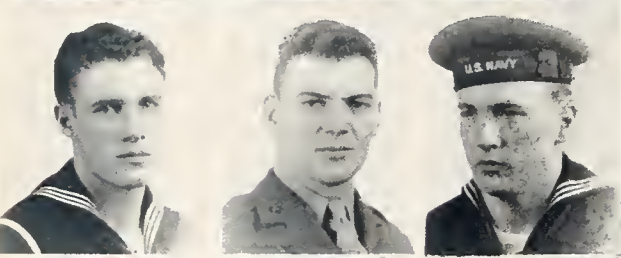

Marguerite Stanley, a cute gal if you ever saw one, is one of the campus favorites. She always has some word for everybody that never fails to encourage them. Down at the Pike house she is one of the roost rulers, and she just does beat Mrs. Johnson to the door before closing time. She is another person worthy of remembering.

C L A S S

Roi Andrews is singing all of the time, now. Leonard Brandon and Ben Trotter developed into Sigs extraordinary. Betty Lou Massey is possibly the greatest character in the class; the girl has marvelous abilities. Cornelia Hegman mourns Juraschek, but her voice still carries from one end of the campus to the other. Jean LaPrelle claims that she is not from the Bronx. Anne Henry is by far one of the most pleasing young ladies on the campus, and her name should be in your date book. Bettye Westbrook married, and the wedding caused quite a stir; it was one of those affairs that everybody was interested in seeing take place. Evan Ragland is a swell fellow to have in a class, and this group of freshman is excellent in toto. Dorothy Eady, shy and timid, is thinking about somebody, but she keeps this a secret, too. Eleanor Edwards from Canton is making good on the campus, and is one of the happiest folks here. The freshmen didn't get their heads shaved any too well this year, but after the war we're gonna call all of them back for it. Frank Lee is not to be forgotten; he is so genuine and sincere that the rest of us think he is a Junior at least.

BEAUTIES

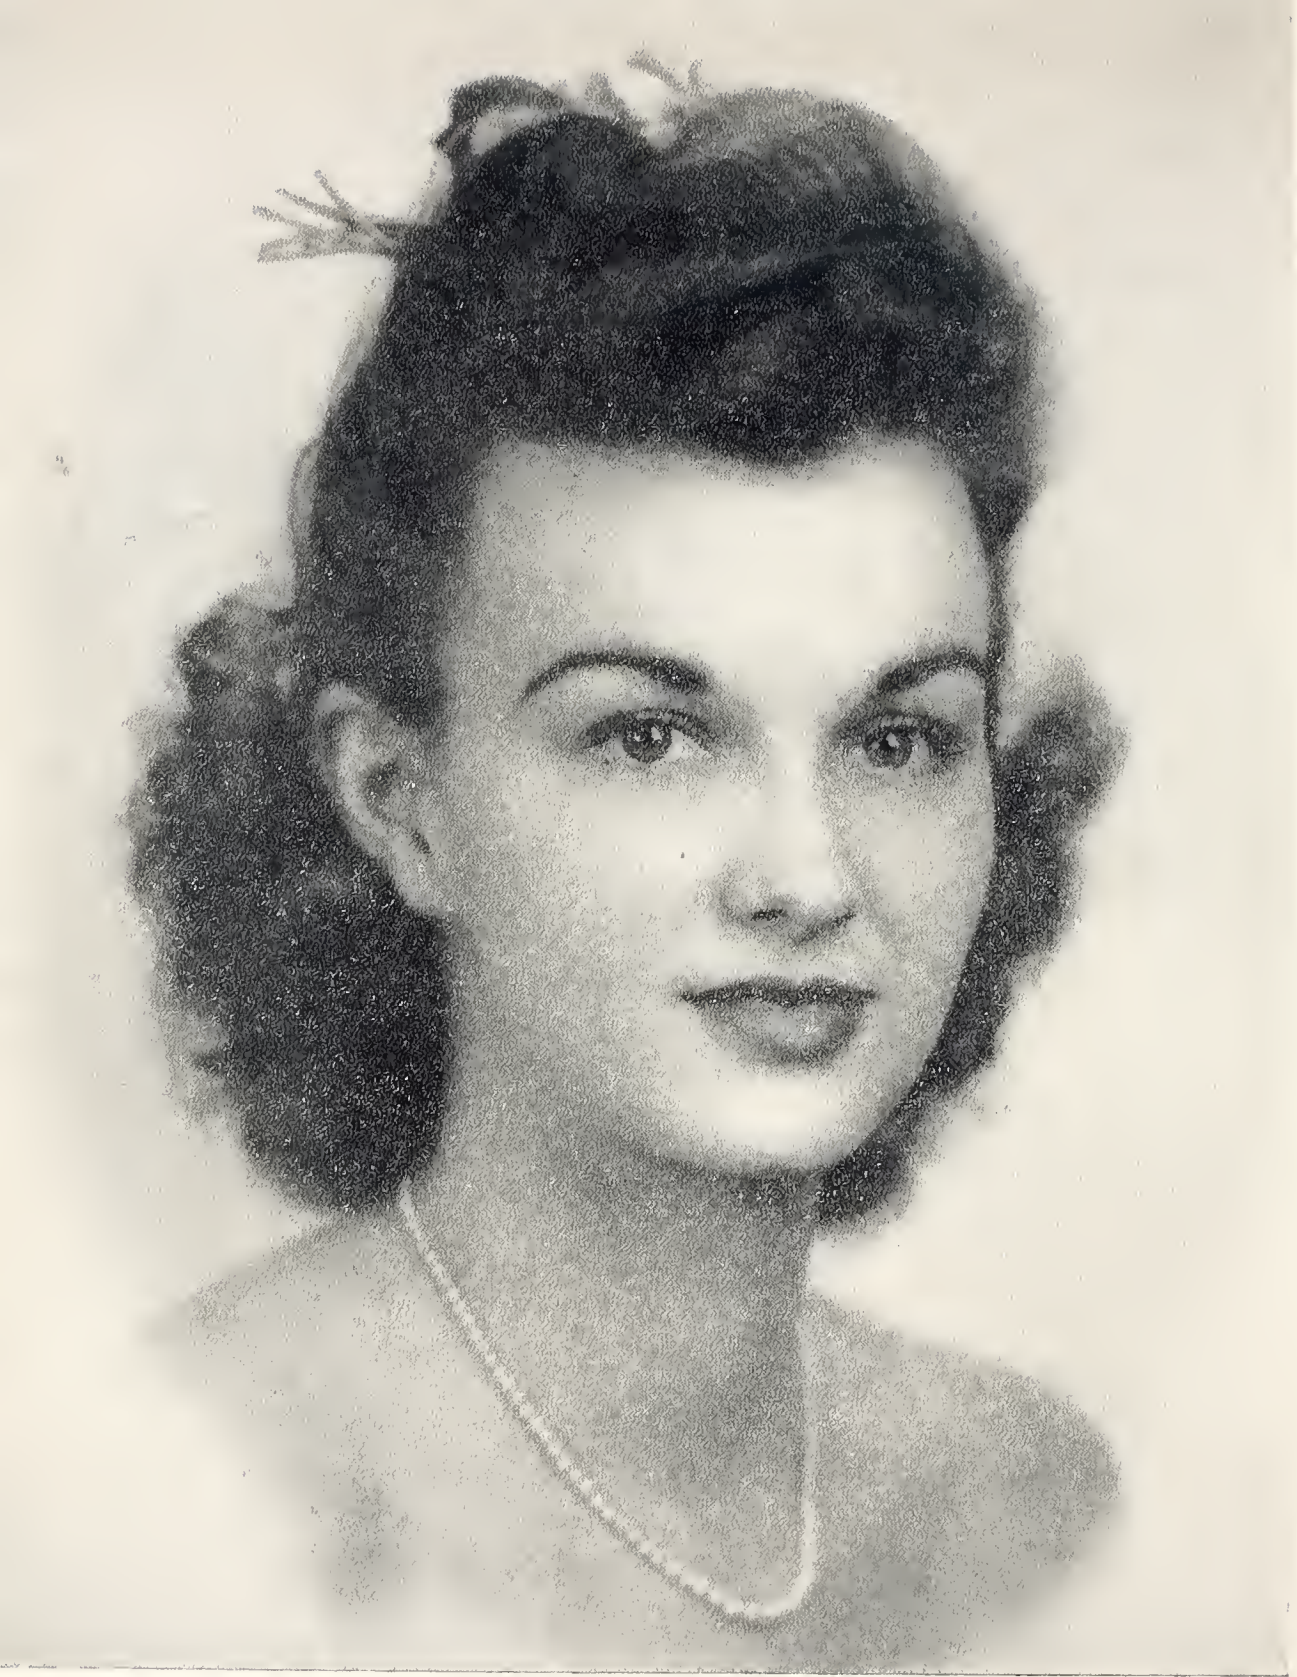

JEAN E. PFAU AND EARLENE R. ROZAR

The BEAUTY SELECTORS

TWO WAVES RANKED OUR BEAUTIES

After much effort, these two were finally persuaded to rank our beauties. Millsaps College has always had a campus full of beauties, and these pages will bear that out. One of the most difficult of all jobs concerned in the production of an annual is the selection of the beauties and consequent ranking. Most people hesitate to tell one lady that she is prettier than another, but these brave Waves fearlessly decided!

HONORARIES

Professor J. REESE LIN

As we record our honoraries we think first of Professor Lin. His many years of tireless service to Millsaps have won him a place of honor in the memories of all who know him. He is the first that the returning alumnus will ask about. As Professor Emeritus of Philosophy and History he exerts a profound influence on our thoughts and methods. His wisdom is timeless.

DuBrovener, Taylor, Calloway, Malone, Exum, Moore, Sanders, White.

KIT KAT

Kit-Kat, the oldest honorary on the campus, is the group of literati that defy all definition. It is impossible to record the many rich conversations, criticisms, and suppers that this group carries on. To those who know Kit Kat no explanation is needed, and to those who do not know no explanation is possible.

CHI DELTA

Being the sister organization of Kit Kat has given Chi Delta a big tradition! Their programs are usually good, either in poetry or prose, and the highlight of the year is the joint meeting with Kit Kat. No one ever knows what might happen at one of these sessions, and the least expected usually does. The entire group is worthy, and their contributions develop the Millsaps literary atmosphere.

SIGMA LAMBDA

These girl campus leaders realize that it is up to them to start drives of various descriptions on the campus. One of these was an auction that netted over a thousand dollars in War Bonds and stamps. When they "strongly recommend" that a certain thing be done it is not long before they see it in visible execution.

With all of the sciences for their field this group has many interests. They can tell you about the stars, and can also tell you how you are able to see them. OMICRON DELTA KAPPA ODK, National Leadership Society for Men, has demanded national respect since its founding in 1914. The circular gold key is seen on the person of all who have ever been initiated, and it speaks for the worth of the organization. The barbecue at Dr. Smith's and the subsequent initiation of Governor Bailey was the brightest spot of this year's many activities. Dr. Ross Moore is the National Treasurer. This is the most widely known honorary on our campus, and to be a member is to deserve respect.

This national pre-med honorary contains our doctors-to-be. Their medical interests, stimulated by speakers who have gained distinction in the medical field, often result in such things as a tour of the Foster General Hospital. The U. S. Government even sent trucks for them to ride in on this trip. This is the last group to turn out the light in the laboratory, and when they do get to bed, if ever, it must be with dreams of all the nerves and bones that animals contain. Aristotle would be green at their knowledge of science.

PI KAPPA DELTA

Pi Kappa Delta, a forensic honorary, and the debating teams have carried off high honors for Millsaps College more than once. They spend long hours in figuring out what the opposing side will use as points in the debate, and their success in this divination is almost psychic. Mock trials give them opportunity to do some clear reasoning, and when some of them enter legal work it will prove of great value to them.

Lammelia Goza, an unusual personality. Foozey Waring, an awful by-product of science. Elizabeth Shipley, stray Greek and true philosopher. Cornelia Ratliff and Rathke, frequently seen at the Pike House and elsewhere. Colonel Kinchen Exum, CSA, last antebellum humanist, and defender of classics. Suzy Whiteside, Phi Mu ball of fire, and known all over the nation. Cornelia Hegman, the girl with the far-carrying voice and Juraschek. This white dog, a true Millsaps spirit, was a character in a real sense to both Navy and civilian students.

Dale Burnham, fit companion for a desert isle. Jack Barnett, he writes to Eleanor Roosevelt. Sonny Williams and Lady Bettye Timberlake, how long must we wait? Sam Barefield, the one on whose shoulders so much tradition is being placed with confidence. He will be the head man on the campus before many moons, a progressive Methodist. Louise Pullen, can it be that you, like Alexander, are looking for new worlds to conquer? U. Z. Hathorne, keeper of the money bags and great signer of the check book. Flower Pot of Flora, a young lady with a way about her that grows on you.

CHI OMEGA

Chi Delta Chapter of Chi Omega has long been in the limelight for several good reasons. With such members as Dale Burnham, Virginia Carmichael, Helen Bunte, Mrs. Cavett, and "Tio ToVall" it has a reason to be proud. Charlotte Gullledge finally took Randolph Peets' Sig pin, and this made some of the rest bolder. Christine Droke is stepping into the shoes of those who have been campus personalities, and without Lady Bettye Timberlake this book would still be only in theory. Emily Henderson and Frances Alexander are symbolic of Chi Omega, a union of personality and brains.

PHI MU

Epsilon Chapter of Phi Mu, oldest sorority, has long been one of the bulwarks of Millsaps Spirit. With characters like the Briens, Lady Rachael Conner, June Dobbs, Julia Goodman, and Susie Whiteside no one could doubt this! Their attraction to the Naval and Marine Unit has not been surprising, and those boys have really set out after them. If you don't believe it, look at these scattered snapshots showing their activities at Battlefield park and on the campus.

KAPPA DELTA

Kitty Applewhite, Lucy Gerald, Bonnie Griffin, Louise Miller, and Sara Kathleen Posey form sort of an old guard in the minds of the students when we think of Mu Chapter. Long noted for beauty, Kappa Delta has kept this reputation alive and has not neglected the scholastic part of its development. Roberta Crawford took an engagement ring, much to the sorrow of several aspirants, and this surprise is one of the year's many. Kappa Delta has produced leaders in all fields; to call the roll is to summarize Millsaps College.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON

Marguerite Stanley has been the jewel in Alpha Zeta's crown this year, and Carrie Pearl Evans has run her a close second in popularity. Their chapter rooms on Oakwood street are furnished so well that you want a second invitation, and the whole set up is Ritzy. Harriet Reagan has led off with honours in almost everything, and Margaret Gaskin is the head Amazon in Chi Delta.

KAPPA ALPHA

Alpha Mu Chapter lives up to the grand old southern tradition of "Dieu et les Dames." Francis Lundy, President of the Student Body, and Zach Taylor, BMOC, are the two outstanding examples, although there are others that contend for the honour. The K A's are a likeable lot, and there is no wonder on anyones part that they are so very well liked on and off the campus. They are fair and lucky in politics and love, and you're crazy if you don't admit this is about the best combination at Millsaps. Zach kept up the scholarship, unaided or not.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

Since its founding at the University of Virginia in 1868 Pi Kappa Alpha has moved in national concepts. Alpha-Iota chapter has embodied the faith of the founders in that it has been composed of the best of all types. It has produced pianists like Calloway and humanists like Exum; it has fostered athletics and has led the entire campus in membership in the honoraries. On the seventy-fifth anniversary of Dr. George Summey's initiation this chapter went in a large group, and this was justification of its nationwide interest. If a fraternity can be a living influence for seventy-five years in a man's life it must have much to back it up. The campus scholarship award is an annual honor.

They produced all four class presidents.

KAPPA SIGMA

Alpha Upsilon of Kappa Sigma is a power on the campus. Kappa Sigma claims some connection to some society in the Middle Ages when guilds and associations were getting their impetus in the humanistic movement. Randolph Peets and Billy Shackleford typify the Sig that the campus has come to know down through the chapters long eventful history. The Sigs are good sports and their unity is enviable.

STUDENT EXECUTIVE BOARD

This group is a result of the constitution of the Student Body. It governs all the affairs of the students, serving as a last resort for the ironing out of any difficulty that seldom arises. It places your Student Activities fee in the various channels where it is due to be used, and is your best friend on the campus. Being the custodian and defender of the Student Body Constitution, it also regulates the entire calendar of the years events.

THE CHRISTIAN COUNCIL

Long thought to be the most beneficial influence on the spiritual concepts of the campus, the Christian Council exerts a wide influence on the molding of the Millsaps student. It fosters the Vesper Services each Sunday afternoon and its greatest achievement is the annual Religious Emphasis Week. They usually attend conferences whenever they can, and these must be rich experiences.

THE WOMAN'S COUNCIL

This is the governing body of the Co-eds at Millsaps. They determine what nights shall be late nights and just how late those nights can be. Then they see to it that an orderly Co-ed system arises in the Co-eds themselves rather than from some outside authority. The Woman's Council wants each Co-ed to make their own rules and to realize that they must abide by them for the good of the college. These girls are the duly elected representatives of Women's Rights on the campus.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

Here the political situation in Patagonia may be discussed, or we may speak on the Persian oil. Smith has made most of the programs into dramatic monologues, but some of these are intensely interesting; one was on the ancestry of some banking firm in Europe (or was it Asia?) Here the war is discussed, and here the peace will be written months before an unsuspecting public has an inkling about it.

Y. W. C. A. OFFICERS

These girls have made great progress this year, and their spirit along with their effort has been responsible. Those who do attend the Y. W. C. THE VIKINGS

The Vikings, who had their genesis in the old Empyrean society, are a social organization composed of those who do not belong to the Greek letter fraternities and sororities. Their meetings are secret, but their good times and spirit are the talk of the campus. This attempt to extend social activity to all students on the campus is one of the most laudable aspects of Millsaps liberal system.

This 1944 Bobashela is the record of Millsaps College at war. The editors have been faced with a shortage of film, a shortage of paper, and all the ills that flesh is heir to, but at last it comes off the press. It has endeavored to maintain the literary standards of preceding Bobashelas; it has sought to keep the faith. It has answered a million questions to the satisfaction of the askers, and it is now in lasting print. The officers of the honoraries, fraternities, and organizations are omitted this year for the first time because in the process of publication they have been changed several times to our certain knowledge. Each semester has seen new elections, and we are on three a year under the present semester division. Judge us as you will, but all of these trials entered into the publication. The staff has been splendid, and the student body and faculty have been patient. We express our gratitude for the patience that has been shown us.

BOBASHELA

Dr. Moore our faculty advisor, has lent the assuring hand to our endeavors. We are grateful for his ready understanding and his capable opinions. He has enriched our conferences with his wit and has improved our ideas with his wisdom. If any one person could be responsible for the 1944 Bobashela, it is Dr. Ross Moore.

The NAVY BAND

The Navy band at Millsaps can carry platoons along on marching feet and make them like it. The excellence of some of its members finds expression in the good melodies that twirl out of various instruments. Clarence Mabry is being considered for the Navy Band in Washington, D. C., so he must be fairly good to get national recognition. This musical part of military is one of the organizations most dear to Millsaps, and whenever this group of musicians rounds a curve you can rest assured that coeds and eds stop long enough to hear that last note.

S N A P S

COLLEGE MÉLANGE

NAVY TEAMS

Never has Millsaps been more blessed with masculine might. The Navy landed, and the opposing teams melted into sawdust before the blitz hit 'em. The basketball teams have caused state-wide comment, and the way those balls drop in the basket makes the old grad's heart swell with pride. Much of the growing college interest in sports is owed to the physical prowess of the Navy. Incidentally, perfect teamwork is going to knit a team from civilians and trainees in football that will roll like a juggernaut over some of our very oldest and toughest rivals.

Our NAVY

These Navy folks are the ones in the offices. They grind out wrongs, and make the crooked

FOLKS

who will make the wheels turn reports, hear complaints, right straight in general. They are war, the ones that clear up the into vital statistics.

Through this gate the Millsaps students pass; some have books and some do not, but all are involved in the great process of education. The posts are gifts from preceding classes. The road goes upward — it is almost symbolic of the struggle that one must exert in order to reach the heights of knowledge.

WHITWORTH HALL

Observatory

Here Professor Harrell traces the paths of the stars for the heavenly minded. Other planets are easily seen through the telescope, and the idea of classes late at night is not to be neglected, boys and girls!

CEPHUS and COMPANY

For a very long time Cephus and the rest of those who serve at Millsaps have been one of the great institutions on the Millsaps campus. Cherry, with his mail basket and bucket of Coca-Colas, is a familiar sight in the memory of everyone. Those who are at work in the cafeteria are as much a part of college life as we are. Lula Belle down at the Pike House is a unique type. Cephus can fix the best hamburgers and coffee this side of the Mason and Dixon line, and those on the other side shouldn't ever attempt coffee; tea is their speed. As long as the type that Cephus represents is a part of our lives the south will live on as a unit.

WELCOME

MILLSAPS COLLEGE
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI
July 1st., 1944

Dear Naval Trainees,
Millsaps College welcomes you Naval boys to her 1944 Bobashela. The Board of Trustees has asked me to express their appreciation for your contribution to the college, and I likewise assure you of their interest in your welfare.

Millsaps welcomes you to her way of education. Our entire college is yours ; you are urged to avail yourself of the opportunities offered for your personal development. Feel that you are needed in activities outside of the classroom, and in our methods you will find that you can be of real service.

For over fifty years our standards have been acclaimed excellent. It gives me pleasure to offer our best to you. We are justly proud of your splendid cooperation ; every part of Millsaps College welcomes you.

Yours sincerely,

M. L. Smith

KINCHEN W. EXUM
EDITOR

LADY BETTYE TIMBERLAKE
BUSINESS MANAGER

...Year Book of Millsaps College

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI
July 1st, 1944

DEAR READERS,

This annual, after having run the gamut of several editors, is now in your hands. It is a record of Millsaps College that my staff and I have had the privilege to bind together into tangible evidence. Is such a record worthy of our Alma Mater?

For the traditions set by other editors I am truly thankful; for the help of Clara Porter Cavett and Andy Doesman I am grateful. Mrs. Stone has been the only one to whom I have carried my literary problems, and with her ever-present ability she has guided my problems toward a pleasing solution. Dr. Moore, our faculty bulwark, has always lent a reassuring hand. Lady Bettye Timberlake and my staff have made publication possible.

Millsaps, when I left for the Army, was an easy going, sleepy liberal arts college enjoying the fruits of fifty years of service. When I returned a change had taken place; Millsaps was reaching for new opportunities. The Navy, the plans for the future, and the high type of student symbolize this awakened vigor.

Gratefully yours,

Kinchen W. Exum

and THANKS

RAMBLER'S CLUB

This is the great group of geologists who try to figure out why the earth is. Dr. Sullivan has long been the scholarly half of the group of wanderers—and they frequently find fossils in the waste land. We never dreamed that there were shells on the campus, but Dr. Sullivan proudly exhibits them. One of the most monumental achievements at Millsaps is the great collection of relics—a result of the long eager research of Dr. Sullivan; if you are lucky you might penetrate the depths of Sullivan-Harrell and there will be found bones, rocks, specimens, and all the delights of a scientist. The Ramblers have long given parts of this display to school enrichment.

MILLSAPS PLAYERS and ALPHA PSI OMEGA

Only the Greek dramatists could appreciate to the extent of just praise the work that Dr. White has done with plays at Millsaps. His renditions of plot cause crowds to turn out en masse and they always go away well pleased with a good performance. Grease paint, rouged men, hairy heroes, and sweet leading ladies fit into the scheme of things. This gives students an opportunity for self expression, and Millsaps has turned out some great individuals. This group keeps alive dramatic interest and the audience is between chills and guffaws.

VALUED PATRONAGE

THE EMPORIUM, Jackson, Mississippi

This is a very brief summary—and we do mean brief. When school was opened last November the Navy was doing things. Commander Alderman was full-steaming ahead, and the torpedoes did not bother him, either. The Navy-coed situation caused scuttlebutt to hide his head in the many dances that were held, and boy, those dances are history making affairs. The Navy is just as good at swinging a leg as they are at P. T.

The selection of the students for Who's Who was no small problem for the faculty, and it was not child's play for the faculty to keep up with all of the hundreds of Naval regulations, either.

Occasionally, Rocks and Shoals would be read among many clearings of the throat, but we do not recall any serious violations. A garbage can had the serious quality of rolling down the hall at the most unexpected hour, but Scuttlebutt soon stopped doing this.

Mrs. Cavett, Andy Dossman, and Colonel Exum all had a hand in the Bobashela, and it developed by jerks and spurts. Colonel Exum still stands when the immortal Dixie is played, and he is the last of the ante-bellum humanists. Lady Bettye Timberlake kept the check-book through it all, and each editor thanked the muses for her sweet soul.

Suzy Whiteside. John Malone. Ernest Rathell. Prof. Calloway. Dale Burnham. Phil Culbertson. "Muy" Ables. "El" Mable. These folks are complete sentences, and need no punctuation.

The library became modern in that it added books to fit the growing opinions of students. No great reactionary books, but the genuine great modern trends were added.

Gasoline rationing hampered fraternity blow-outs, but half will never be told about the fun that was had. Imposition cannot daunt spirit, and brother, we've got it.

Millsaps will always live in the hearts of those who have passed out of the aisles in their caps and gowns, and it will always be the dream of many, whether their stars let them become a part of its love of philosophy or not. It has done GREAT things, and a future built on such a past will be rich indeed.

What d'ya mean "FREE ENTERPRISE"

That when a man sets out with the predetermined goal in his mind to be a doctor or a shoe salesman or an electrical engineer -- that's what he wants to be. And he can be.

That when a farmer plows his field and plants his seed, he's got a right to a fair return. A right to buy more land -- and extend his fences.

That when any man works hard and saves his dollars, those dollars are his. He can spend them if he likes, or he can invest his money, secure in the knowledge it's working for him.

That's Free Enterprise --

Without it, nobody's going to plan any further than tomorrow. Without it, there's no incentive to invent or invest, discover or develop. Without it -- and don't let any one tell you otherwise -- this country would lose its high place among the nations of the world.

The Private Electric Industry is a part of the American Free Enterprise System.
